Certification of Compliance for China for SIMATIC Cabling and Connectors

To whom it may concern, herewith we as Siemens I IA SC CI confirm that our SIMATIC cables and connectors are designed for use in PLC systems that belongs to the group "Automation Controller Platform".

This kind of Automation Controller Equipment has HS codes which are not in the list by Harmonized System (HS) codes of products subject to CCC mark.

Therefore this group does not need CCC certification until now.

CCC certification depends on the overall equipment shipped to China.

Sincerely yours,

Siemens Aktiengesellschaft
